

All Grades | Physical Education

The report card represents an evaluation of a student's effort in experiences, learning and activities in the Physical Education over the course of a grading period. Use the Proficiency Scale for Effort (below) to report on a student's effort for the Physical Education section of the report card.

Score Descriptor	Proficiency Scale For Effort
4 Exceeds Standard	This student performs at standard (3) and in addition: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Is a consistent, independent, and self motivated learner. • Actively contributes to the classroom learning experience.
3 At Standard	This student regularly: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Focuses and engages in the class activity. • Listens to and follows instructional directions and asks for help when needed. • Follows class rules. • Respects people and school property. • Cooperates with others to accomplish lesson goals.
2 Approaching Standard	This student sometimes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Focuses and engages in the class activity. • Listens to and follows instructional directions and asks for help when needed. • Follows class rules. • Respects people and school property. • Cooperates with others to accomplish lesson goals.
1 Not At Standard	This student seldom: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Focuses and engages in the class activity. • Listens to and follows instructional directions and asks for help when needed. • Follows class rules. • Respects people and school property. • Cooperates with others to accomplish lesson goals.

All Grades | Physical Education Report Card Guide

Effort for students in Physical Education should be assessed both grading periods.

Career Planning and Life Management
	GRADING PERIOD
Physical Education		